

Dr Anne Héritier Lachat
Commissioner since 1 January 2005

Anne Héritier Lachat (1950) received her doctorate from the University of Geneva in 1980 and qualified as an attorney in 1982. Teaching in the law faculty at the University of Geneva, she specialises in banking, corporate and commercial law. Anne Héritier Lachat has been an alternate judge at the Cour de Justice of Geneva and judge at the Tribunal de première instance. From 1993 to 1998 she acted as legal advisor to the current Takeover Board (TOB). She became a member to the TOB in 2000 and held the position of Vice-Chairman in 2004. Anne Héritier Lachat is now active as an independent attorney in Geneva and as a lecturer in the faculty of economics and social sciences (HEC) at the University of Geneva. She is also a member of the Chamber of International Cooperation as well as of the Takeover Chamber of the Swiss Federal Banking Commission.

Mandates:

-