

Vera Carspecken

Member of the Executive Board

Interim Head of Insurance division

Vera Carspecken (1963) is a certified banking specialist and auditor. After completing secondary school, she started her career at the former Schweizerische Bankgesellschaft (SBG) and worked at various banks in the following years, first in the areas of organisation, HR and IT, and from 1995 onwards mainly in lending with a focus on real estate financing. In 2000, she obtained her Swiss Federal Banking Diploma and in 2006, she became Certified Public Accountant, working at KPMG, Audit Financial Services. From 2006 until she moved to FINMA, she again worked for a banking institution, as deputy head of internal audit and most recently as head of the credit division.

Vera Carspecken joined FINMA in 2010 and worked in the area of audit firm supervision. In 2012, she moved to the Insurance division, where she performed various roles as Deputy Division Operating Officer until 2018. From 2018, she headed the Supervision of Small and Medium-Sized Insurance Companies section and from 1 June 2023, she took on the role of Division Operating Officer and Deputy Divisional Head. She has been Interim Head of the Insurance division since 1 May 2025. She previously held this role from 1 October 2023 to 31 March 2024.
