

Hedwig Ulmer Busenhart

Member of the Executive Board
Head of Insurance division

Hedwig Ulmer Busenhart (1971) has been Head of the Insurance division and a member of FINMA's Executive Board since 1 April 2026. She has many years of management experience in the insurance industry. Most recently, she was Head of Pensions Switzerland and a member of the Executive Management at Helvetia Insurance, having previously headed up the Actuarial Services Life Switzerland department. Prior to this, she was responsible for sales and margin management at Swiss Life, among other things, and had previously served as Head of Actuarial and Risk Management for Switzerland at the life insurance group. She also worked at the chocolate manufacturer Barry Callebaut where she was Head of Group Risk Management. Hedwig Ulmer Busenhart studied mathematics at ETH Zurich and trained as an actuary.